

Nebraska Association of Resources Districts Nomination Form – Director of the Year

The Nebraska Association of Resources Districts (NARD) sponsors an annual Director Award to:

- Recognize outstanding effort and dedication to conservation, aiming toward NRD goals.
- Promote NRDs, conservation, natural resources and other environmental issues
- Reward attendance at NRD committee, board and other meetings
- Recognize insight into legislation, current issues and stewardship of the land

Criteria

1. Nominee must be a current or past Natural Resources District Director.
2. Demonstration of sincere interest and dedication to natural resources conservation must have been exhibited.
3. Innovative and leadership qualities must have been demonstrated.
4. Demonstration of professional growth and/or affiliations.
5. Directors must have shown desire to educate the general public about NRD activities and conservation efforts.
6. Nominee must have demonstrated regular attendance at local NRD board meetings and functions.
7. One award will be presented each year at the NARD Annual Meeting.

Nominations

1. Nominations must include:
 - a. Nominee name, address, telephone number
 - b. Submitting NRD name, address and telephone number
2. A description of the activities and accomplishments of the nominee.
3. Nominations must not exceed two typed, double-spaced pages. Supplemental information, e.g. newspaper articles, photographs, etc., may be added.

Procedure

1. Qualified nominations must be submitted by a local NRD Manager.
2. Nominations must be received by May at the NARD office, 601 S 12th Street, Suite 201, Lincoln, NE 68508.
3. The NARD Executive Committee will serve as the Selection Committee.
4. The recipient will be recognized at the NARD Annual Conference.
5. The NARD President or his/her designee will present the award.
6. Local NRD will make arrangements for award winner to be present at the NARD Annual Meeting for award presentation.

Nominations due May 1st!