

Nebraska Association of Resources Districts

Nomination Form: Outstanding Community Conservation Award

The Nebraska Association of Resources Districts (NARD) sponsors an annual Outstanding Community Conservation Award to:

- Reward outstanding community conservation efforts in Nebraska
- Promote community conservation projects in Nebraska
- Provide recognition to NRDs and the NARD

Criteria

- Communities, individuals and organizations are eligible
- Conservation activities must be for conservation purposes. Examples: windbreaks, shelterbelts, wildlife habitat, landscaping, woodlots, erosion control, invasive species management, etc. Ornamental and horticultural plantings may be incorporated in the conservation plan.
- Conservation efforts must be rural or urban in public or private ownership.
- A brief summary of the conservation objective, present status and plans for the future should be included.
- Conservation activities and promotional efforts by the nominee will be considered.

Nominations

1. Nominations must include:
 - Nominee name, address, telephone number
 - Submitting NRD name, address, and telephone number
 - Support information including:
 - Background information (history, community groups who are involved)
 - Conservation activities (history, purpose and success)
 - Conservation management activities (type/effectiveness of care, replanting, attitude toward conservation, etc.)
 - Other support information (conservation promotion/educational activities, other conservation activities and awards, etc.)
 - Each nomination must include at least four photographs. You will be asked to obtain a photo of the nominee(s) if they are chosen as the winner.

2. Nominations must not exceed two typed, double-spaced pages. Please try and include any supplemental information, e.g. newspaper articles, four photographs, etc.

Procedure

1. Nominations must be submitted by a Natural Resources District. Local NRD community conservation award recipients or other NRD nominations are eligible. Any individual, organization or agency is encouraged to submit a nomination to a local NRD. Each NRD may submit only one nomination.
2. Nominations must be submitted to the NARD office by May 1.
NARD
Attn: Awards Committee
8100 S. 15th St., Suite B
Lincoln, NE 68512
3. The NARD Native Vegetation and Forestry Subcommittee will serve as the selection committee.
4. The recipient will be recognized at the NARD Annual Fall Conference. The NARD Executive Director or his/her designee will present the award.

Nomination Due May 1