

Nebraska Association of Resources Districts

Nomination Form: Director of the Year

The Nebraska Association of Resources Districts (NARD) sponsors an annual Director of the Year Award to:

- Recognize outstanding effort and dedication to conservation, aiming toward NRD goals in the past year.
- Promote NRDs, conservation, natural resources and other environmental issues.
- Reward attendance at NRD committee, board and other meetings.
- Recognize insight into legislation, current issues and stewardship of the land.

Criteria

- Nominee must be a current or past Natural Resources District director.
- Demonstration of sincere interest and dedication to natural resources conservation must have been exhibited.
- Innovative and leadership qualities must have been demonstrated.
- Demonstration of professional growth and/or affiliations.
- Directors must have shown desire to educate the general public about NRD activities and conservation efforts.
- Nominee must have demonstrated regular attendance at local NRD board meetings and functions.
- One award will be presented each year at the NARD annual conference.

Nominations

1. Nominations must include:
 - Nominee name, address, telephone number
 - Submitting NRD name, address, and telephone number
2. Description of the activities and accomplishments of the nominee.
3. Nominations must not exceed two typed, double-spaced pages. Please try and include any supplemental information, e.g. newspaper articles, four photographs, etc.

Procedure

1. Qualified nominations must be submitted by a local NRD manager.
2. Nominations must be submitted to the NARD office by May 1.
NARD Native Vegetation & Forestry Subcommittee
601 S. 12th St., Ste 201
Lincoln, NE 68508
3. The NARD Executive Committee will serve as the selection committee.
4. The recipient will be recognized at the NARD Annual Fall Conference. The NARD Executive Director or his/her designee will present the award.

Nomination Due May 1