

(NARD Foundation Programs Continued...)

Nebraska Natural Resources Districts Oral History Project—Funded the NRD Oral History Program to record, store and disseminate interviews with early leaders about the NRDs. The program was started by Jim Baar, Dayle Williamson, Ron Fleecs and Gayle Starr – all long-time supporters of the NRDs. Partners in the program include NARD, The UNL Water Center and the Nebraska Historical Society. The project has recorded and transcribed over eighty individual 45-minute oral histories spanning former and current staff and leadership of all 23 NRDs and key individuals that helped ensure their formation. The interviews are all cataloged and available at <http://nrdstories.org/>.
